

SAVE ME

A POEM WRITTEN FOR WILMINGTON KIWANIS THE ELIMINATE PROJECT

Written by: Franchon "SuiteFranchon" Beeks, member since 2010

I am woman.
birthing the future
hoping for the best,
praying for healing.
might it be a hope for my child's living?

I am woman.
birthing the innocent.
fearing premature death of the babies.
is there not a way to prevent this?
how can the world miss this?
Don't we know we are all connected?

I am woman.
from a small village that some do not know exists.
but, my spirit tells me that if just one person out there will insist on justice and healing for all, we could rid this.

I am woman.
Using my spirit connectedness to help you hear my plea.
by helping save our babies, you are helping yourselves, you are saving me.
